

THE ULTIMATE SETTING FOR AN Unforgettable Summer

Here in Georgia's heartland, summer is a time to slow down and relish in the joy of simple pleasures. Whether you're picnicking on the riverbank, paddling or casting a line at the lake, going for a wander among the trees, or counting the stars while around the campfire, the magic of Mother Nature is around every corner. Let your worries drift away on the breeze — opt for a slow-down summer in Forsyth, Georgia to recharge and rekindle your spirit.

Plan your Summer at VisitForsythGA.com

High Falls State Park

Hikers can pick from three different trails, ranging in distance and difficulty. Each trail offers an up-close view of local flora and fauna while taking in the fresh air and sounds of the nearby waterfall. Stop by the miniature golf course for some competition, or rent a kayak and enjoy the 650-acre High Falls Lake. For those who cannot get enough of this action-packed location, there are many camping options to help extend your stay, from glamping-style yurts to primitive camping spots.

Side-Quest: Keep your eyes on the skies for a glimpse of the magnificent Bald Eagles that nest in the area.

Indian Springs State Park

Hike, fish and boat in one of the oldest state parks in the country, where, for centuries, Creek Indians collected fresh spring water for its healing properties. With over 700 sprawling acres, there is plenty to explore on foot or by bike, including a 105-acre lake full of bass, crappie and catfish for catching. Guests are welcome to stay at the campground that hosts tents, trailers and RVs for a few days.

Side-Quest: Immerse yourself in centuries-old lore and taste a sample of the spring water still flowing through the stone Spring House, which dates back to the Great Depression.

Dames Ferry Park and Lake Juliette

3600-acre Lake Juliette at Dames Ferry Park offers all the beauty, fishing and boating you can desire from a crystal clear, river-fed lake. Anglers will find plenty of largemouth and striped bass, bream and crappie to catch from the shore or docks. For adventurers who love a lake sunset, Dames Ferry Campground provides sites with fantastic lake views for relaxing and unforgettable getaways.

Side-Quest: Head down the road to the quaint and memorable town of Juliette for a meal at the famous Whistle Stop Cafe. Browse the unique shops and historic sites while you wait for a table.

Piedmont National Wildlife Refuge

Over 35,000 acres of forest, paths and wildlife await. Whether you are an avid birder or simply looking to spend some peaceful time surrounded by nature, this may be the perfect stop. Get your heart pumping on one of the trails ranging from easy to challenging, or slow down in a shady spot to meditate in this massive wildlife sanctuary.

Ocmulgee Water Trail

If rushing waters are calling your name, you must head off the path for a water-based adventure like no other. The Ocmulgee Water Trail is a multi-county project that has become a recreational haven for water lovers with over 240+ miles of water trail for paddling and river enthusiasts to enjoy.

Dauset Trails Nature Center

Calling all animal lovers! Do not skip a visit to the home of General Beauregard Lee, Georgia's own weather-forecasting groundhog! The nature center offers up-close glimpses of native animals and plenty of trails to explore on foot or horseback. Keep your eyes peeled for otters, foxes, owls and bald eagles, among many other native species!

Kid-friendly tip: Forsyth has plenty of local and easy-to-access parks with playgrounds, picnic pavilions and walking tracks for those with small children. Families can also beat the summer heat at Country Club Park's Splash Pad or test their skills at the skate park. Those with furry babies can enjoy the off-leash Forsyth Bark Park.

Plan your Americana Summer at VISITFORSYTHGA.COM

For more timeless summer traditions in Forsyth, be sure to visit our website! From picking your own berries at a local farm to dancing the night away at concerts on the square, the experiences to fill your summer days and nights are endless.

Experience the Simple Pleasures of a Forsyth Summer!